

Are you attending or planning to attend this years Annual reunion?	If you have booked already or plan on booking, how did/do you make your booking?	Thinking about previous Annual Reunions, what events would you like to see again this year?	What new events would you like to see included in this years reunion?	If we had a theme for any of our dinners, what theme would you suggest?	Which activities do think would be great for our Bilbo Bar Club kids to enjoy and get to know each other?	If you are interested in any off-site activities or events, what would you suggest?	Any final thoughts or feedback we should consider for this years reunion?
Yes, I'm booked and attending!	Package deal via Luxury Escapes, Myfiji etc	Never attended a reunion before	Sorry not helpful as I don't know what has already been included. Plus, take a morning or afternoon tea with us	Lots of fun at the black marlin bar, really good Fijian music
Yes, I'm booked and attending!	Direct with the resort	All	All the women could do a shopping day in town (purchase $50 f) each (worth of supplies for the kindergartens... then book a lunch somewhere in Korotoga... then bus back to resort and sit at bilbo bar n bag the goods into show bags for the kiddies... great way for all the girls to get to know each other ☺ the men could repair a few things on the same day at the kindergarten or go on a fishing trip and cook up a feast back at bilbo while we pack the show bags... great bonding for all members... Another great idea for the cup would be for the ladies to have a day prior to cup to make hats/ fascinators to wear on the day... The bilbo could supply the flowers etc and the ladies could purchase a ticket to make a hat ☺	Roman toga	Water balloon races, treasure hunt with clues, little olympics with teams of 4	Ladies day out... dinner n massage then meet up with the gals for beach party n bbq including live music on Cuvu beach fireworks to end the night	Perhaps we could get rid of the free beer n wine on meet the team nights and simply make the cocktails $10-$15 each n beers $2.50 sports $6.50 the Shang could take at cost price the money for supplies and bilbo could receive the rest to go towards funds raised... also the Bilbo needs to play some music to liven things up to keep the members/guest interested in communicating with each other... Some members don't seem to be interested or friendly, it's time all members make the new members feel welcome

No, I will not be attending this year	Package deal via Luxury Escapes, Myfiji etc	We've attended a few reunions over the years and honestly have to say that we've been embarrassed by the behaviour of some of the Bilbo Bar members. Their treatment of some of the workers has been appalling.	None	None	None	None	I feel sorry for the organisers of this event. We have been to the Shang many times since 1975. Our kids now stay with their partners. However, we don't want to ruin a holiday by keeping company with obnoxious people.
